DESPERATE STRIKERS.

McKeesport in the Hands of a Lawless Mob.

"SCAB" WORKERS BADLY BEATEN.

The Strikers Finally Take Possession of the Mills of the National Tube Company and Put the Workmen to Flight After Clubbing Them.

McKEESPORT, Pa., June 6.—Never has this city witnessed such scenes of defiance of law and the inability of the authorities to cope with law breakers as was enacted here yesterday and last night. The trouble grows out of the strike at the tube works and the strikers outwitted the police, broke into the mill yard, and made systematic tours of the works and their surroundings.

The plant resumed in two departments yesterday, and about twenty-five men went to work. The news quickly spread and by noon a mob of nearly 5,000 had assembled about the gates, awaiting the appearance of the workmen. Most of the men remained inside, but a few attempted to go to their homes, and were caught by the mob and terribly beaten. They were finally rescued, however, by the police and taken back into the enclosure.

The mob then dispersed in part, but towards evening reassembled and by 6 o'clock probably 8,000 men were massed in front of the entrance on Fourth avenue, and it was said that fully three-fourths of the number were foreigners. They were disappointed. At 6 o'clock the day turn did not come out and the night turn did not go in. There was a great load of provisions taken into the mill by the company and a lone Slav workman came out the back way and tried to make a break to escape. He was seen, and a section of the surging mob broke off the main body and fell upon his trail.

The race covered several squares before he turned at bay. He was unable to run any further, and drew a knife and faced the yelling pursuers. The foremost for a moment paused a moment, but the rest came up behind them and a dozen men with clubs sprang upon the panting fugitive. He was down in an instant, but Officer Singer was close on the heels of the leaders of the race and he jumped into the middle of the melee. The officer and the fugitive were badly beaten, but help came and they were rescued.

At the mills the mob surged around the entrances until 7 o'clock last evening when a rush was made and they broke into the yards. The men inside were panic stricken, and it was the rule of every man for himself. The mob swarmed into the inclosure, looking for the hated non-unionists. Hundreds of them were equipped with clubs or weapons of some description. Then began a wild chase and pursuit of the hunted workmen inside. Several welders took to the river, and made their escape to Mifflin township pursued by crowds of strikers and finally escaped into the darkness towards Duquesne.

The strikers were in complete possession of the place. They ranged over the grounds and finally routed out ten hidden workmen. The poor fellows made a dash for freedom, but were cut off and surrounded. The mob set upon them in a swarm and beat them shockingly. In the crush to get at the prostrate men one fellow was badly stabbed. It was the Homestead fight over again, with variations.

One man was found during the evening still in hiding in the mill yard, which the strikers were patrolling, in complete mastery of the works. The fellow made a dash for the street and got outside the yards. He was pursued close by the pursuers, and in desperation sprang into a passing electric car. The trolley pole was pulled down and the car stalled. Then the fugitive was dragged off the car and beaten and kicked into insensibility. Another stowaway was found, his clothing stripped off, and he was kicked and beaten until he was unconscious. Then the assailants left him for a time, and he managed to crawl into a store on Fifth avenue. He was unable to help himself and is still there.

So far as the authorities are able to learn nobody has been killed outright, but the injuries of some of the victims of the mob's fury will probably die. Up to this hour the strikers have refrained from destroying the machinery in the mills. At midnight approached the crowds decreased and comparative quiet now reigns, but the strikers are virtually in possession of the town.

The situation is quiet, but critical. In obedience to the mayor's proclamation the strikers have dispersed. They are only under cover, however, and have every avenue of approach to the city under surveillance. Pickets have been posted east and west, and men are strung along the river to give the alarm, as was done at Homestead. At least thirty five men were injured in the riot last night, two of whom, the physicians say, will die.

Maryland Troops Ordered Out.

BALTIMORE, June 6.—Upon receiving the request for military assistance yesterday from States Attorney Blond and Sheriff King, of Allegany county, Governor Brown ordered the Fifth and Fourth regiments out. Marching orders were issued shortly before 5 o'clock last evening. The first train left over the Baltimore and Ohio road at 6 o'clock, and two other trains at intervals of thirty minutes. There were in the two commands 976 muskets and about 100 officers, also a large number of musicians and servants. Adjutant General H. Kyd Douglass and Brigadier General Stewart Brown are in command. The troops are prepared for business.

Pennsylvania Mines Resuming.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., June 6.—The Harvey Coal company's colliery on the Six Mile Run, in the Huntingdon and Broad Top region, resumed yesterday. It is generally believed that this break in the ranks of the strikers will cause a general resumption in this district. The Broad Top miners have become disheartened, and express a sentiment of resuming work at the old rate of wages rather than see their families suffer for food. The operators have abandoned all efforts to hasten a resumption, believing that the miners will go back in a day or two through sheer force of necessity.

Importing Negro Miners.

BROCKWAYVILLE, Pa., June 6.—The Shawmut Coal company is still loading slack, despite the reports to the contrary, and no further demonstrations have been made by the striking miners. The action of Sheriff Elliott in arresting sixty two of the strikers who marched to Shawmut in a body on Monday was a surprise. The legality of their arrest will be contested in the courts. Seventy negroes just arrived from Alabama will be used to start up the Noble mine, another plant owned by the Shawmut Coal company.

Ohio Operators Ready to Yield.

COLUMBUS O., June 6.—A strong feeling prevails among the mine operators to the effect that the miners officials would like to confer with the operators' committee from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Operators think it believed would settle on sixty nine cents for Pennsylvania, sixty cents for Ohio and other districts in the same ratio. It is known that these figures would be accepted here by the mine workers. It is believed that a conference will be called for tomorrow, and nothing definite is settled.

Alleged Orders Out Troops.

MARION, Ills., June 6.—There is any amount of trouble in sight at the Carterville mines. The strikers are growing bolder and more threatening every hour. The north bound freight train on the Iron Mountain road which was carrying eight cars of Ohio coal from Brockport to St. Louis, was fired into on a mile of track here yesterday. The sheriff visited the governor again, making an earnest appeal for troops. Governor Altgeld finally yielded and ordered Colonel Smith to proceed to Carterville at once with three regiments.

Maryland Strikers Gain Recruits.

FROSTBURG, Md., June 6.—There are now only about 15 men out of a force of 8,200 at work in the coal mines. The strikers succeeded in getting the Eckhart miners out yesterday. The march to the mines by the strikers caused a great deal of excitement and several fights. A Swede who came to the mines in 1852 was knocked down and slightly injured. Seven men were arrested and taken to Cumberland. The Eckhart miners finished out their day's work.

Started Under Police Protection.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., June 6.—The miners of this place are greatly excited over the report that James Passmore started his Grey Hedge colliery in Indiana county yesterday under police protection. This is one of four mines in the Cush Creek region, just across the Clearfield county line, at which point the committee of Philadelphia operators are said to have determined to make their first attempt to break the strike.

Strikers Prevent Coloreds from Working.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., June 6.—A crowd of 1,000 strikers camped near Painter's works and the deputies fired upon them for the purpose of frightening them off. The fire was returned and one man was slightly wounded. The men, however, succeeded in keeping the new men away. The strikers are elated over their success and say that by the end of the week they will have all the works shut down.

Murderous Strikers Arrested.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 4.—Intelligence has reached here that the men who fired upon the miners Monday were arrested by the sheriff and posse on Armstrong creek last evening. They were all strikers. Two gave the name of Lloyd and the third is named Darlington. Seven men were shot at Powellton but only one died. Three others are probably fatally hurt.

Captain Johnston Not Expelled.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 6.—The report that June J. Johnston captain of the Cripple Creek strikers was expelled from West Point because of his connection with the hazing of General Logan's son is denied by his relatives here, who are among the most prominent citizens of the state. They say he was not expelled and had no connection with the hazing of young Logan.

A Discarded Lover's Revenge.

PADUCAH, Ky., June 6.—News of a terrible tragedy in Calloway county has just reached here. Two men named Storey and Cochran were in love with a Miss Kelly, daughter of ex-Deputy Sheriff Kelly. Last Sunday Storey and the girl were married. Cochran went to Kelly's house Monday night, and calling Storey out they walked a short distance and without a word Cochran drew a revolver and shot Storey in the mouth killing him instantly. He then went to the house and meeting Kelly fired at him, the ball taking effect in his mouth also. At last accounts Kelly was still alive. Cochran made his escape and has not yet been caught.

COLORADO'S STRIKE ENDED

The Warlike Miners Abandon Their Fortifications After Arbitration.

DENVER, June 6.—The strike at Cripple Creek was settled at a late hour, Governor Waite acting for the miners. Only one point caused serious complication—the allowance of lunch time, the miners demanding thirty minutes. The articles of agreement as adopted provide that the miners shall work eight hours a day, with twenty minutes for luncheon, that they be paid at the rate of $3 a day, and the mine owners shall not discriminate against either union or non-union men. After the conference the governor issued a proclamation calling on the men to lay down their arms.

In accordance with Governor Waite's instructions, the entire state militia is on the move for Cripple Creek. There will be about 600 men, infantry and artillery. General Brooks has received private instructions from Governor Waite to get consent of both sides to abide by the articles of agreement, and not to go further than Colorado Springs unless his mission is successful.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 6.—Alexander McIntosh, state organizer for the miners' union, read the arbitration agreement to the assembled miners, and immediately all the men on Bull Hill laid down their arms, and pickets were called in and the fortification abandoned. The town has been decorated with flags, and the rejoicing over the settlement of the strike is general.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 6.—The mine owners say that after the insurrection is put down and their property restored to them they will arbitrate as to wages, hours, etc. Sheriff Bowers says he has warrants for the arrest of 200 miners which he will serve. He expects the strikers will make a determined opposition.

WHOLESALE POISONING

Five Boys Dead and Seven Critically Ill from Eating Poisonous Weeds.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 6.—Doctors were hurriedly summoned to the Home of the Sisters of Mercy to attend a wholesale case of poisoning that had occurred in the home. They found twelve little boys, whose ages range from 5 to 12 years, in a very critical condition, and despite every effort to save them, five died during the night, while but slight hopes are as yet entertained for the recovery of the other seven.

From all that can be learned so far the little fellows while at play in the grounds, were shown an herb by one of their number which they partook of freely and from the effects of which it is supposed they died.

The names of the dead are: James Forrestal, 10 years old; John Callahan aged 10 years, Thomas Casemore aged 10, Augustus Powers aged 12, John Donnelly aged 12.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that the boys died of paralysis of the heart caused by eating a poisonous weed.

Won Her Breach of Promise Suit.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 6.—Miss Sarah L. Liming, of South Amboy, secured a verdict of $5,000 in the Middlesex (N. J.) county court against Julius S. Bartlett, a builder of Hackensack, for breach of promise. Bartlett was in court before the evidence was heard, and there offered to marry Miss Liming but she refused. The court refused to grant a non suit on the ground that Miss Liming had been betrayed under promise of marriage. The jury awarded her the full amount of damages asked.

Two Hundred Coxeyites Sentenced.

BOISE, Idaho, June 6.—Judge Beatty yesterday sentenced the 200 Coxeyites arrested several days ago for stealing a Union Pacific train. "General" Scheffler was given six months, "Quartermaster General" Breckinridge four months and the other leaders from thirty days to three months in the various county jails in the state. The rank and file, almost 190 in number, were given from thirty to sixty days in a blockade prison to be erected on the Idaho and Oregon line.

Locked the Sheriff in a Cell.

OAKLAND, Md., June 6.—Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock Sheriff Charles Wegman entered the jail for the purpose of repairing a cot in one of the cells. Whilst he was engaged at work Albert Ohover, a young man who was confined in jail awaiting trial on the charge of atrocious assault, closed the door on the sheriff and locked him in. Ohover walked out of the jail and took to the woods, which are close by.

TARIFF BILL PROGRESS

The Amended Sugar Schedule Goes Through the Senate.

TO GO INTO EFFECT NEXT YEAR.

Mr. Hill Voted for the Peffer Amendment Favoring Free Sugar, While Irby Was Paired the Same Way—Senators Sherman and Stewart Refused to Vote.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The compromise amendments to the sugar schedule were all adopted in the senate yesterday, and the pivotal schedule on which the fate of the tariff measure depended went through without change. On the vital amendment to place all sugars on the free list the Democratic line was drawn, Mr. Hill (N. Y.) voting in favor of it and Mr. Irby (S. C.) being paired the same way. But the Republicans were unable to hold their own forces intact, Messrs. Manderson and Perkins voting against the amendment and Mr. Quay being paired against it, while Messrs. Sherman and Stewart did not vote at all. Only one of the Populists, Mr. Peffer, voted for free sugar, Messrs. Kyle and Allen on the final issue, joining with the majority of Democrats against it. The vote on Mr. Jones' amendment, fixing Jan. 1 as the date on which the sugar bounty repeal should go into effect was carried by 38 yeas to 31 nays. Mr. Peffer's amendment to place all sugar on the free list was lost by 26 to 37.

Had all the Republicans with the three Populists and the two disaffected Democrats joined hands, sugar, raw and refined, would have gone on the free list. On all the other amendments offered by the Republicans the majority against them ranged from three to ten. The adoption of the sugar schedule practically insures the passage of the bill at an early date, although it is intimated that the Republicans will make a final stand on the sugar schedule when the bill is reported and considered in the senate.

As adopted the schedule imposes a duty of 40 per cent ad valorem on all sugars, raw and refined with a differential duty of one-eighth of a cent per pound on sugars above 16 Dutch standard, and an additional one-tenth of a cent against sugars imported from countries paying an export bounty. It continues the Hawaiian treaty admitting sugar from the Sandwich Islands free of duty, and places a duty of two cents per gallon on molasses testing above forty degrees by the polariscope. The schedule goes into effect Jan. 1, 1895, and the bounty is continued until that date.

After an ineffectual attempt to have yesterday devoted to private bills, the house continued the discussion of the Brawley bill the principal speech being made by Mr. Harter (O.). A rule providing for debate under the five minute rule and a vote at 5 30 was brought in by the committee on rules and adopted by the house, but was subsequently amended to allow two hours general debate and a vote today.

The advocates of state banks concede defeat on the vote to be taken in the house on repealing the tax on state bank currency. At the outset of the debate the state bank men counted on 140 votes. Their ranks are thinned by absence and pairs, however, and they now admit that the majority against the state banks will be very large.

Facts Worth Knowing

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuff, powders or astringents, because they are irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm. Your druggist has it.

A BIG STEAMER WRECKED.

Went Ashore on the New Foundland Coast—The Crew Saved.

ST. JOHN, N. F., June 6.—The British steamer Texas, Captain Hunter, which sailed from Montreal May 30 for Bristol, went ashore at St. Shotts, in St. Mary's bay. At the time the steamer stranded there was a dense fog, during which the vessel had been drawn considerably out of her course by the strong currents that are known to exist in St. Mary's bay.

When the steamer struck she smashed in her bows and in pounding holes were driven in her bottom, through which the water entered, drowning nearly all the cattle which were housed on the main deck. After reaching land the crew returned to the vessel and saved all their belongs and also succeeded in saving nearly all the sheep which constituted a part of her cargo.

When the news of the disaster reached here a steamer was immediately sent to the assistance of the wrecked vessel. She arrived during the evening and found the vessel under water and fast breaking up. Owing to the heavy swell and sea that was running it was impossible to approach close to the Texas. The steamer returned here today with the crew and a portion of the cargo that was saved. Another steamer was sent today to bring the remainder of the cargo and fittings.

The greater part of the cargo will be lost, and what has been saved is in very bad condition. The Texas was loaded with a general cargo. She also had on board 240 head of cattle and 1,415 sheep. The wrecked steamer belonged to the Dominion line and carried a crew of forty eight all told. She measures 2,953 tons.

The Crush at Talequah, I. T.

TALEQUAH, I. T., June 6.—Almost with the dawn yesterday morning the streets and grounds around the state building were full of people anxious to be the first in line to pass before the treasurer. By 9 o'clock fully 9,000 Cherokees were passing and shoving their way in the great mass of humanity in order to get to the pay window, and by noon the crowd increased to 5,000 and about $75,000 had been disbursed. Large crowds of people are still coming in from every direction, and by to morrow, at the present rate, there will scarcely be standing room in this city for them. In providing last fall for the distribution of this money the Cherokee legislature shut out all adopted, including the Shawnees and Delawares. These at once brought suit for a portion of the money, and the suit is now pending.

The Claim Against Stanford's Estate.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Representative McGuire, of California vouches for the statement that Attorney General Olney has filed in behalf of the United States a claim against the estate of the late Senator Stanford for the sum of $15,000,000. The claim will be presented to Mrs. Stanford, who is the executrix of the estate. The claim is the proportionate share of debt of the Central Pacific railroad which the department of justice estimates that that estate owes the United States upon the theory that personal assets of individual members of the original Central Pacific syndicate are liable for the debt of that corporation.

Killed His Mistress and Himself.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., June 6.—Oscar P. Hodgen shot and killed Mrs. Millie Jones, the mother of two children 9 and 4 years old respectively. He then shot and killed himself. Hodgen leaves a wife and eight children at Afton, Iowa, where he was formerly a wealthy farmer. He had separated from his wife and Mrs. Jones' husband had left her because of the relations of the pair. The shooting was witnessed by Jones' two children. Hodgen left a note in which he said: "This should be the fate of all home wrecking women."

Verdict Against Butler's Estate.

BOSTON, June 6.—The jury in the case of Edward C. Mackey of New York against Paul Butler and Adelbert Ames, administrators of the estate of Benjamin F. Butler, returned a verdict of $10,695.31 in favor of the plaintiff in the United States circuit court yesterday. This was the amount the plaintiff claimed Mr. Butler owned him for certain bonds at the time of his death. Counsel for the defendant will file a motion for a new trial.

GASTON'S TESTIMONY.

The Wire Manufacturer Before the Senate Committee.

HE RECOGNIZED NO SENATORS.

Though He Did Hear a Conversation Regarding Sugar in Mr. Terrell's Room at the Arlington Hotel—There Was Very Little Politics in the Discussion.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The committee investigating the sugar trust gave out last night the testimony of Walter Gaston, the wire manufacturer of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who occupied the room next to Mr. Terrell at the Arlington hotel, and upon whose statement to a congressman was based the article in the New York Mail and Express which is one of the topics considered by the committee. The article was read to Gaston, and he said:

"With the exception of the fact that I was in the room—that I overheard a conversation on sugar, that I told a congressman next morning from what I heard, that I did not believe the Wilson bill would pass, nor any other tariff unless it was a better bill—it is absolutely manufactured out of whole cloth, absolutely false from beginning to end. In telling this congressman—we had confidential relations together for some time—I told him this in pure confidence without giving him details. I mentioned nobody. I simply told him that from a sugar conversation the night before in an adjoining room I did not believe the Wilson bill would pass, nor any tariff bill unless a much more favorable bill for the various industries of the country were framed. That I will admit."

He then told that upon being awakened he learned from the conversation in the adjoining room that the sugar men were not satisfied with the sugar schedule offered by the sub committee of the finance committee. He did not recognize the voice of any person in the room although it was those persons who were dissatisfied with the sugar schedule. From the general course of their conversation he was sure they were interested in sugar. He denied that he arose and peeped through the keyhole. The only reason he had to suppose that senators were in the room was the familiarity they displayed with what had been going on in the sub-committee on finance that day. He had never said to anyone that he recognized the voices of senators.

It was his understanding that the sub-committee had offered the sugar industry 40 per cent ad valorem and one-eighth of a cent differential for refined sugar, and this was unsatisfactory to the men in the room, and from what they said he was sure that the Wilson bill would be defeated. He was asked concerning many of the statements in the newspapers, and declared most of them absolutely false in every particular. He knew Terrell was in the room, because some one came in and said "Good evening, Mr. Terrell." One of the men seemed more familiar with the subject of sugar than the others, and was complimented by the others for his knowledge. There was no politics in this discussion, all sugar, and some social talk.

Asked as to why he thought the bill would be defeated he said: "The interests of one in tariff matters should be the interest of all, and I knew, or I thought I knew that the sugar men could not get it all and that it would have to be live and let live as to all those matters. Therefore if the sugar men were better taken care of the other schedules would be better taken care of. That was my inference and it was not an unnatural one."

Senator Allen—"I understood you to say a while ago that you knew the sugar trust had it in their power to defeat this bill if not satisfactory to them?"

"Yes sir."

"What do you mean by that?"

Mr. Gaston—"I mean this. There are two senators from Louisiana and in Louisiana there is a bounty of two cents on sugar. The sugar interest having certain senators representing it, in the closeness of the vote in the senate, of course there is not a very great margin as you know."

He went on and stated that in a general way that he thought the various senators who did not like certain features of the bill would combine with the sugar interests and defeat the measure. This he inferred, he did not know anything about it.

He did not give the name of the congressman that he had told of the conversation and was given until today to decide whether the congressman's name should be given to the committee.

Dr. Mutchmore was born in Ohio of Scotch-Irish Revolutionary stock. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812, and his mother was a daughter of Colonel Thomas McCune, who served under Washington. Dr. Mutchmore was a student in Ohio university and studied law for a year and a half at the University of Indiana, after which he graduated at Center college, Danville, Ky., and studied theology at the Danville seminary. He began his active ministerial labors in 1858 as a home missionary in southern Kentucky.

The first settled pastorate to which the doctor was called was at Columbia, Mo., the seat of the Missouri university, and from there he went to Fulton, Mo., where Westminster college is situated, and started an extensive revival among the populace and students. At the close of 1862 he went to St. Louis and built the Carondelet Avenue church which he dedicated free of debt. THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor will visit Middletown one day each month. Office hours from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

A VETERAN'S STORY.

THE EXPERIENCE OF A MAN WHO FOUGHT FOR HIS FLAG.

An Injury Received at Gettysburg Causes Many Years of Suffering Cured at Last.

From the Elmira, N. Y., Democrat.

"If you are in search of really an interesting item for your paper," said Judson B. Tred, one of the leading druggists of Ithaca to an Ithaca Democrat reporter the other morning, "you should interview Mr. Henry T. Freese, of Varna, and inquire of him how it happens, that after being so long in an almost helpless condition, and for so many years a great sufferer, he can now walk long distances with comparative ease, meanwhile looking only on the bright side of life while a short time ago life was to him only a burden."

The Democrat reporter took an early opportunity to hunt up Mr. Freese, who lives on a small farm about one mile from Varna. When found he told the following story:

"Before the war I was a well man. It was at the battle of Gettysburg that I recieved an injury to my back. I was a member of the 76th Regiment, N. Y. S. V. I never recovered from the injury, and, in fact, continued to grow worse. I became affected with numbness which began in one of my toes and slowly extended above my hips. I had a dull pain at the base of my neck, my eyes were considerably affected and I had a double vision. I also had a severe pain in my side that made it difficult to draw a long breath. About twelve years ago my condition became such that I was unable to work. I tried the best physicians. They gave up the case. One said 'There is no hope for you,' and still another said: 'There is no use to take medicine.' Getting no help from physicians, I began taking various medicines recommended for such ills as mine. I expended a great deal of money but recieved little or no benefit. Then, for a long time, I used an electric battery and also an electric belt, paying, I think, for the latter, $80, and yet there was no improvement. At last I could not walk except by holding on to a fence or some support, hardly being able to lift my feet. About this time I heard of a friend who had been greatly benefited by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I sent to him for six boxes, and much to my surprise and joy I began to grow better. I sent for more and I noticed that I gradually grew stronger both in mind and body. Before that my mind was often in a confused state, but it now became clearer; my eyesight grew better, the pain at the base of my neck returned less frequently and was less severe; the neuralgia that had made life a burden began to disappear, and the attacks which used to last six weeks were soon of short duration; the numbness in my body decreased gradually, and to-day I can walk a number of miles with no support but my cane, and I get up and down stairs with ease."

The reporter, although impressed with the truthfulness of Mr. Freese's statements, asked him if he was willing to make oath to their correctness, and he most emphatically said "yes," and subsequently did so before Mr. Samuel S. Green, a Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, that tired feeling resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense that name implies. They were first compounded as a prescription and used as such in general practice by an eminent physician. So great was their efficacy that it was deemed wise to place them within the reach of all. They are now manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1894.

The government crop report is to the effect that corn and potatoes are rotting in the ground in this State and Pennsylvania because of excessive and continu-d rains, while in Nebraska and the Dakotas vegetation of all kinds is suffering from drouth. This is a great country.

The petition of the anti-suffrage women of Albany, to be presented to the Constitutional Convention, this week, will contain the names of 8,000 women of that city who do not want to vote themselves, and who are not willing that their sisters should vote. The names have all been secured in less than a month.

Official reports as to the general cholera situation in Europe received by the Marine Hospital service are in the main reassuring. The disease prevails in parts of France and Spain, but cannot be called epidemic there. No cholera cases are reported in Italy and the greatest vigilance is being exercised by the health authorities. The one section in which the disease prevails to an alarming extent is in Galicia on the Austro-Russian frontier, where the people have no other source of water supply than the polluted river.

It is reported in Albany, on what is regarded as good authority, that Charles Armitage is to be named as postmaster of that city. Mr. Armitage was the leader of the Hill Democrats, who combined with the Republicans in 1892 against the Democratic electoral ticket, and nearly gave Harrison a majority in Albany county. His nomination would indicate that peace had been made between President Cleveland and Senator Hill, and that according to the terms of peace the President was to do good to those who had despitefully used him and persecuted him. Peace and party harmony are very desirable, but desirable things are sometimes secured at too great a price.

Gideon Granger appeared before Lexow's Committee, yesterday, and forseveral hours devoted himself to trying to smirch the reputation of his ex-father-in-law, Police Commissioner McClave, swearing that he had repeatedly acted as a go-between in selling police appointments. On cross-examination, he contradicted himself flatly several times; was shown some twenty checks that he could not deny having forged, owned to having written letters that showed him to be a sneak and ingrate and taken altogether exhibited himself in a most contemptible light. The Lexow Committee has had some very shady witnesses before it but Granger makes the worst of the dive keepers seem respectable.

The Hudson River Bridge bill, which passed the Senate, yesterday, differs from the House bill in being more stringent in the conditions, which it imposes upon the bridge company. It definitely prescribes how the measurements shall be taken to determine that the centre of the span is 150 feet above spring tides and provides that the recommendations of the Board of Engineers as to construction and location of a pier shall not be final until the report has been approved by the Secretary of War. It is also required that the bridge shall be completed within ten years. There is little doubt that the Senate bill will be accepted by the House in conference and since the bill was drawn with special reference to meeting the objections urged by President Cleveland to the bill passed earlier in the session, there is no doubt that the measure will receive executive approval.

A FEMALE FORGER.

A Young Woman Succeeds in Passing Two Bogus Checks on Middletown Merchants, But is Forced to Give Up a Portion of the Money.

Yesterday, at about 12:30 o'clock, a young woman, probably twenty-five or twenty-eight years old, apparently an honest looking German girl, but with little of the German accent, purchased some goods at a West Main street store and tendered in payment a check for $12, signed W. Vail and made payable to E. O. Hulse. She said the drawer of the check was the proprietor of the paper box factory, on Mill street. The check was drawn on the Middletown Savings Bank and as soon as the woman was gone the proprietor of the store becoming suspicious sent a clerk to the bank and was told at once that the check was a forgery. The clerk attempted to find the woman, but she escaped him.

At the New York Store the woman, who had been a regular customer for some time and had always paid cash, presented a check for $10, signed C. J. Giering and made payable to Edna Hulse, and dated February, 1894.

Both this and the other check were drawn on the old fashioned green blanks of the savings bank, and both bore the same number, which was 617. The hand writing on the checks was not good and was evidently disguised, but the endorsements made by the woman were neatly written. Neither of the signatures was even good counterfeit.

At the New York Store the woman said she had been boarding at 37 Highland avenue, but had leased a house on Academy avenue and would bring her folks here and keep house. One of the proprietors of the store became suspicious of the check and learning that it was a forgery hastened to the Erie depot and entering a car of train 6, found the woman crouching in the seat, evidently trying to escape observation. He had but a few seconds in which to work but he stated the case, demanded his money and threatened if he did not get it to call in an officer. At first the woman asked him to wait until her return to town, but a prompt repitition of his threat to call an officer, brought the money at once and the merchant had to jump from the car after it had started.

At this time the clerk of the West Main street store had discovered that the forger was on board the train, but it was too late and his firm was out just $12.

One of the names used by the forger is that of a most estimiable young woman who resides in Goshen and is well known in this city.

A widow, who was a former resident of this city, where her husband was killed a few years ago, was for two or three days a visitor at 37 High street, but left there before Decoration Day and to one of the proprietors of the New York store the forger gave that woman's name, but it is probable that this woman has not given her true name in any of her transactions and that both the names used were borrowed for the occasion.

It is believed by some that the forger is an inmate of a disreputable house a few miles from Middletown.

AIMS OF THE UNIVERSALISTS.

What They Hope and Expect to Do in Middletown—Rev. J. D. Corby's Sermon at the Assembly Rooms, Last Night.

At the Assembly Rooms, last evening, a large audience was present to attend the religious service of the Universalist Society, recently organized in this city.

Rev. James D. Corby, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Universalist Church at Troy, N. Y., was the preacher. Taking for his text St. John vi:12, "Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost," the preacher said Jesus here utters the philosophy of christian economies. Economy no more means saving money than it means spending money. It means administering what you have to the best advantage. A few years ago, every factory was confronted with the problem of how to dispose of its refuse leather, tin and slag. Now these fragments are carefully utilized, and there are no longer piles of waste material. We give praise to the men who learned to make these long wasted fragments useful.

We, Universalist clergymen, leave the work of our parishes and come to Middletown to preach the gospel, the glad tidings, not with any desire to antagonize any of the other christian denominations of this town. We bid them godspeed in every good work they undertake, in every man or woman they win from the power of sin to purity and righteousness. We come here to preach the gospel of our common Lord and to fulfill his commandment as declared in our text. There are men and women in this community who recognize the tremendous strides that have been made in biblical knowledge, as well as in agriculture and machinery. They are asking God to help them solve these great problems that press upon them for answer. There are scores of families here who are hopelessly alienated from the prevailing creeds and out of all sympathy with their pulpit teachings. Many families have no church home. We have organized this Universalist Society to feed these people with the bread of life; to gather up these noble fragments of families, that nothing be lost; to satisfy their heart hunger with our interpretation of God.

We believe that to gather the unchurched into a Universalist Church (which I hope soon to see built here), where they will be under the helpful influence of Christ's teaching from our pulpit, and in our Sunday School and prayer meetings, and Christian Endeavor Society, will make them better and more helpful citizens, because they are more devout and reverent Christians.

The bible and common sense teach us the certainty of punishment for every sin, but we know that God punishes us to cure us of sinning, and that punishment will continue just as long as the Divine Father deems it necessary to convince His child that it is better to cease doing evil and learn to do well. "What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God?" As the Universalist creed puts it, "Holiness and happiness are inseparably connected." The only thing that would make Universalism sure would be the gathering up of every last fragment that nothing be lost. If one poor soul is cast as rubbish to the void, Christ fails by just that much of doing the work God gave him to do and becoming the Saviour of all men.

The only Universalism I care anything about is that which builds the bridge of eternal hope over the gulf of sin and darkness, and makes God accessible to the lost soul and straying feet of the weakest and worst of men. Life is going to yield us more than we can think or ask, but we must learn to think and ask great things. Universalism teaches us to ask and expect more life, the undying hope which gathered up the fragments, and is satisfied with nothing less than their transformation into the perfect sonship of God.

A Bold Horse Thief Easily Captured

The chief of police, of Port Jervis was telegraphed to, and on the arrival of the train arrested the man and took possession of the horse and wagon.

The thief consented to return to Pennsylvania without a requisition

DELUGE AND PERFECTION NOZZLES.

Very Successful Test in the Foundry Lot, Last Night—Two-inch Streams Thrown Great Distances—The Perfection Holder.

Mr. Cyrus B. Robinson, of the firm of Samuel Eastman & Co., East Concord, N. H., gave an exhibition of the Hopkins patent Deluge and Perfection nozzles and Perfection hose holder on the Foundry lot, last evening, which was witnessed by the Chief of the Fire Department, many firemen, members of the Common Council and a number of citizens and which quickly convinced all who saw it that the Hopkins nozzle is a very great improvement on any nozzles now in use by the Middletown Fire Department and that its adoption by would very greatly increase the efficiency of the department.

The Hopkins's nozzle differs from all other nozzles in that it does away with the rotary motion which water naturally has, when it leaves a pipe under pressure, and utilizes all the water's force in a straight line. The rotary motion is corrected by the very simple device of dividing the large part of the nozzle, where it is attached to the hose, into sections, by longitudinal partitions.

The Perfection holder is a very simple device, but is a great help to firemen in handling, enabling one man with one hand, to control a hose that without its help, could not easily be held by two men. A sharp-pointed standard, inserted in the ground so sustained the hose that in last night's exhibition, Mr. Robinson easily controlled the largest streams.

The test began by Chief Thorpe attaching a length of hose to the Foundry street hydrant, putting on the best nozzle belonging to the Fire Department and throwing a stream as far as possible. A stake was set to see how much better Perfection and Deluge nozzles would do. The streams thrown by the new nozzles went far beyond the point reached by the stream thrown from the Middletown nozzle and it made not the least difference when the size of the nozzle was increased, for with a two-inch nozzle the water was thrown almost if not quite as far as when a three-quarter inch nozzle was used. The water left the nozzle in a solid stream and did not begin to spray till it had gone many feet. Some idea of the power of the stream from the Deluge nozzle may be had from the fact that a two-inch stream was thrown almost the entire length of the foundry lot.

The nozzles and holders are not expensive and a few hundred dollars will equip the entire department. The test was so successful that all who saw it were convinced that the equipment of the department will not be complete until it is supplied with these new devices, and many practical men did not hesitate to say that with the Hopkins nozzle and our city's heavy water pressure more efficient service could be done at fires than could possibly be done with a steam fire engine.

Who Sold Mrs. Halliday Cartridges?

District Attorney Hill, of Sullivan county, is anxious to find out who sold Mrs. Halliday cartridges with which she killed her husband and Mrs. McQuillan and daughter. Two boxes were found among her possessions. They are "Central Fire, Union metallic cartridges No. 32." The mark on the boxes is "R. S."

The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble. The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other difficulties originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

"ADAMANT" WALL PLASTER!

The New, Cheap Substitute for Common Plaster.

It is very hard and very adhesive; it does away with the warping and shrinkage of doors and casings, and the building is not saturated with water, as it necessarily must be when common plaster is used; it costs originally but little more than lime plaster, and in the end its superior qualities make it immeasurably cheaper; it saves waiting several weeks or months for the buildings to dry out; it does not crack or fall off, even in the case of leakage; it is applied easily by any good plasterer; it is the only material with which repairing can be done neatly and "to stay."

THE PLANET URANUS.

Some Interesting Things a Voyage to the Gigantic World Would Disclose.

If Uranus, which is a star of about the sixth magnitude, were a planet like those little ones called asteroids, which are being discovered by the dozen every year, it could not have much claim upon popular attention. But Uranus is really a gigantic world, more than 60 times as large as ours. Its vast distance, now about 1,700,000,000 miles from the earth, is what causes it to look so small. Uranus has four moons, which revolve backward in their orbits—that is to say, they revolve from east to west around Uranus, while Uranus goes, like all the other planets, from west to east around the sun. It is believed that Uranus rotates backward on its axis also. Moreover, the axis of that great, strange globe lies in such a direction that in the course of its year, which is equal to 84 of our years, the sun shines almost perpendicularly first upon one pole and then upon the other. Measured by our time standard, there are 40 years of constant daylight, followed by 40 years of unbroken night, around the poles of Uranus. And the sun rises in the west and sets in the east there. But the sun looks very small when viewed from Uranus—only one four-hundredth as large as it appears to us. Still it sheds upon that planet 1,500 times as much light as the full moon sends to the earth, so that daylight upon Uranus, while faint compared with the blaze of a terrestrial noonday, is nevertheless a very respectable kind of illumination.

It is a pity that the telescope is able to show us very little of the detail of the surface of Uranus. Some faint bands or belts, just visible with the most powerful instruments, are all that can be made out. If we could visit Uranus, we should probably be greatly surprised, if not greatly disappointed. Its average density is but a trifle in excess of that of water, and of course its surface density is far less.

A voyager from the earth landing on Uranus would probably sink almost as rapidly as if he had leaped upon one of those round white thunderclouds which, piled high in air, look so solid and snowy cool on a July afternoon. He could no more walk on the surface of that world than he could walk on water.

It has generally been assumed that the meaning of the slight density of Uranus is that that planet is still in a vaporous or liquid condition and exceedingly hot perhaps. If so, it may in the course of future ages contract and condense and cool until it comes into a condition resembling the earth's. Will vital forces then become active upon it and produce a long succession of living species, brightening its dim daylight with the color of flowers and the ceaseless activity of animate existence? It is not likely that man will ever be able to answer that question, but who that looks upon Uranus keeping step with the earth to the music of the sun can help asking it?—Garrett P. Serviss in New York Sun.

Jangling Piano Strings.

Another case occurred in a house where I was once stopping in Nova Scotia. A piano with a bad note was fixed by simply opening an inside shutter of a bay window at the opposite side of a parlor from the piano. The latch of one shutter was lightly resting against the edge of another and caused the jangle when one particular note was struck. The lady player had previously declared that she would send for a tuner the next day and laughed at my attempt to fix it by hunting about the room while she pounded. However, she did not conceal her surprise when the trouble was removed and admitted that there was something about this sound business that she did not quite understand.

In regard to locating these jangles, however, I will say that it is not always so easy. It requires some practice before the ear becomes capable of locating with any degree of success the direction of sounds of this kind. This was my experience with the first piano jangle, that of the cracked globe, which was quite difficult. That of the window shutter was easier as well as many others which I have located since. A correct musical ear is also an important adjunct in the case.—A. A. Knudson in Popular Science Monthly.

Birch Bark Shoes.

Shoes and other articles besides baskets and cabinets are manufactured from birch bark by the Russian peasantry. The bark from which these articles are made is from the inner skin of the Russian birch tree, common in almost all parts of the empire. It is gathered spring and fall, and the process is a very simple one. An incision is first made around the trunk of the tree, and the peasants have a knack of tearing or unwinding the bark from the starting point, which gives them a strip of even width that they wind into a ball and keep through the winter until it is dry enough to use. It is then made into shoes, baskets and other useful articles. The bark shoes are universally worn by the Russian peasantry. Other shoes used in winter are made of sheeps' wool. These are manufactured by itinerant cobblers who travel from house to house, using the peasants' own materials.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Acme of Forensic Force.

"And now, gentlemen of the jury," shouted the young lawyer, running his long fingers through his flowing locks, "now, gentlemen of the jury, I ask you as men and as citizens of this great and glorious republic if the spotless character of my client is to be permitted to suffer from the words uttered by that—by that—by that vermiform appendix who sits in the witness box with perjury stamped all over him!"—Indianapolis Journal.

SCROFULA AND ECZEMA

A WONDERFUL CURE | A MINISTER'S TESTIMONY

I wish to extol the virtues of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Day's health was unusually good up to the age of 40. At this time scrofula taint manifested itself in form of Eczema. We had used a variety of remedies, with but little good result, but DANA'S SARSAPARILLA proved so effective that I must say it is a grand combination of remedial agents.

My son was also troubled with Eczema, his arms, from hands to elbows, being one solid mass of scabs. He has also been cured by the use of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL WOOING.

A Pretty Girl's Request That Crushed Her Enchanted Admirer.

The drummer was leaning up against the hotel counter talking to the clerk.

"You look worried about something," said the clerk.

"I am," responded the drummer promptly. "I saw the prettiest girl on the train today I have seen in a dozen years of travel."

"That oughtn't to worry you."

"Pretty women have worried better men than I am," ventured the drummer.

"Who was she?"

"Blamed if I know."

"Didn't get acquainted with her?"

"Of course not. You must think I get acquainted with every woman I see."

"You do, don't you?"

"No, I don't, nor do any of us. That's a vile slander on the profession."

"Did you try to?" asked the clerk, with a smile of doubt.

"No, I didn't."

"Then what's worrying you?"

"The way she treated me."

"What did she do?"

The drummer fired his half smoked cigar at the cuspidor viciously.

"Well," he explained, "after I had been gazing at her for an hour or so, I thought I'd try her with a newspaper. She declined it with thanks and a beautiful smile. Then I tried her with a new novel, with the same result. Then I sent over some nice fresh fruit, and it came back. Then I wanted to fix the window for her, and again the thanks and the declination. That lovely smile is what broke me up," sighed the drummer, "and I was sure if I had half a chance I would get acquainted. About 10 minutes after I had made the last offer the train stopped at a station, and she nodded for me to come over. By George, I was sure I had made a 10 strike, and I fairly flew to her.

"'Will you do me a favor?' she asked, with that same enchanting smile, as if I wouldn't have done her a million," and the drummer sighed again.

"'Certainly, with the greatest pleasure,' said I.

"'Well,' says she, 'suppose you get off at this station and take the train for Detroit that comes along this evening. You make me dead tired where you are.'"

The clerk's eyes filled with tears, and the drummer went out and stood in the door gloomily.—Detroit Free Press.

HAD A GOOD TIME.

Some Little Effects, but They Didn't Count Compared With the General Fun.

Among the passengers going over on one of the ferryboats yesterday afternoon was an old man with a red but good natured face, a bald pate, with a fringe of gray hair around it, and an evident desire to talk. Pretty soon he selected his man and said:

"I'm just goin home after bein in Detroit for two weeks."

"Have you enjoyed yourself?" was asked in reply.

"Yes, fairly well, considerin that I had an attack of colic four different times, and that left knee has bothered me with rheumatics. It's kind of a queer place, though."

"How queer?"

"Oh, waal, everybody is kinder cotetch. I'll bet that over 40 fellers dug their elbows into me and hustled me around, and the boys sassed me in the most dreadful manner. I was on the street car and took some cough sirup out of a bottle, and everybody tittered and giggled."

"I TOOK SOME COUGH SIRUP."

"But you didn't mind it?"

"Oh, no, I didn't. I'm kinder cotetch myself, and it takes a heap to get me fightin mad. I was on a street car one day where there was four or five wimin standin up, while about a dozen men were takin it mighty comfortable. Made me sort o' riled to see it, and I got up and said, 'All the hogs will keep right on settin down and chawin tobacker, while all the gentlemen will git up and let these wimin folks sit down.' Waal, sir, as many as six of them fellers offered to lick me, and one of them did haul off to crack at me. He'd 'a' hit me on the jaw, sure's you're born, if I hadn't bristled right up to him and got my jackknife out."

"You talked to 'em just right."

"Yes, I guess I did. Another time I was on a car when a feller in a wagon wouldn't git off the track. The driver he did more whistlin than would call my old dog for 10 years, but the feller wouldn't git off. Sorter riled me to see a man actin so piron mean, and I yelled, 'Look-a-here, mister, if you was a-livin out our way and showed your meanness after this fashion, you'd git rode on a rail quicker'n scat, and I'd be one to help carry it.' Waal, sir, he jumps down and was goin to pull me off the platform and he talked about smashin my jaw and breakin my ribs till a policeman walked him off."

"Any other adventures?"

"Waal, one evening I went up to a policeman at the postoffice. He was lookin tired and sleepy. I offered to spell him for a couple of hours if he wanted to go and take a nap. What do you think he did? Come mighty nigh runnin me in! Said I was interferin with an officer! I seen he was one o' them techy fellers, and so I let him alone. Are they all that way?"

"MIGHTY NIGH ARRESTIN ME."

"No, not all. But then he didn't understand your motive probably."

"Nother time," continued the old man, "I met a policeman on the dock and asked him if it didn't make him giddy and upset his stomach to be so high up over the water, and he got mad in a minit and squared off at me. Ain't no moral use in anybody bein so cantankerous as all that."

"But on the whole you've had a good time, haven't you?"

"On the hull, I've had a darned good time for an old man like me, and I'm a carryin home over 'leven dollars worth o' presents to the family. I've been sassed and elbowed, and I've come mighty nigh havin 'bout six fights, but on the hull it's all right, and I'm gunn hum to do some of the tallest braggin you ever heard of!"—Detroit Free Press.

The Boy Always Escapes.

Officers Edmonson and Holden are telling a funny story on a man who conducts an establishment near Tenth and Market streets. The man became infatuated with a pretty widow who lives next door to his place. The two utilized the hydrant hose by which to converse, for the man was detained at his place of business and the widow's sewing kept her up stairs. The policemen say that the two spent a good deal of their time talking through the rubber hose. They kept that up until last Saturday afternoon. It was then that a small boy adjusted a piece of hose from the hydrant to the center of the improvised telephone and watched for the talkers to resume their conversation. The policemen were standing near when the boy turned on the water. The stream struck the man squarely in the ear, nearly knocking him down and thoroughly drenching him and his place of business. The woman, who had been talking through the other end of the hose at the time, received the full force of the water in her mouth. It knocked her down and nearly strangled her. It [illegible] her [illegible] that day. The boy escaped.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Naturally Inquisitive.

"I want you to take her voice under your [illegible]," said the fond mother to the music teacher. "I think she has a [illegible]."

"Very likely, very likely. You want me to make a [illegible] of her?"

"Yes. She is very quick to learn and very ambitious."

"Did you [illegible]?"

"Certainly."

"Does she ever quarrel?"

"Never."

"Madam, your ambitions cannot be realized. I may teach her to sing, but I can never make a great prima donna of her."—Washington Star.

Ungrateful.

The young men are disgracefully spoiled. A young man in town took a girl to a 10 cent show recently, and it pleased her so that she gave a party in his honor. Expenses: Cost of papering parlor, $17.85; new napkins, $4.50; ice cream, $6; cakes, etc., $4.75; high five favors, $3.50; hired help, $1.75; total, $38.15. The young man has snubbed her since that. He thought the party a great bore.—Atchison Globe.

Protecting the Ladies.

Contractor—Kipping Block. That's a queer name for that new office building, isn't it?

Architect—Oh, I don't know. It's been built so another story can be added any time.—New York World.

SHOTS HERE AND THERE

AN "ARGUS" MAN OFF DUTY AND AT SEVERAL SUBJECTS.

Dwindling Away—Berries and Berry Culture—One Way of Improving the Weather—Telephones in Thunder Showers.

A man who goes in for gardening was telling me, this morning, of the effect which this weather was having on [illegible] plants which he set out a month ago. They got a good start in the warm weather that we had in the early part of May, but since the cold, wet spell began, have been dwindling away, until they are noticeably smaller than they were when he bought them. He really fears that, if this weather continues, they will fade away entirely.

No one can ride through the country in the vicinity of this city without noticing the extent in which farmers are engaging in the cultivation of berries and small fruits. I do not mean that every farmer is a berry grower or that many of them are raising berries for market, but that many farmers, or more probably their wives, having come to know how berries in abundance help out the family, have gone in the cultivation of strawberries, raspberries and blackberries.

An old colored man of my acquaintance gravely assured me, yesterday, that the weather was bad because some one was working spells against it and that the spell couldn't be broken until some one caught a "cross of Calvary toad," (which he explained was one with a cross on its head) burned it and scattered its ashes in all directions. The "cross of Calvary toad," thus used, was, he affirmed, a certain and the only way of breaking the weather when it was "spelled." Won't some one with time for such things catch a "cross of Calvary toad" and attend to its cremation and the distribution of its ashes without delay, for every one must agree that it's time this spell of weather was broken."

The London Lancet has been discussing the dangers of telephoning during thunder storms and inclines to the belief that, although there would be great danger of serious and perhaps irreparable injury to the ear if a lightning bolt struck the wire while the receiver was in use, there would be little chance that the discharge would be dangerous to life, since it would be subdivided into showers of sparks. I have never heard of a serious accident resulting from the use of the telephone during a thunder storm, but I am inclined to think it is because no one takes the chances of using the instrument while lightning is on the wire, for when the call bell is jangling and sparks snapping from the metallic parts of the instrument it would be a very foolhardy person who would go near it. I believe it is claimed by telephone men that lightning arresters, cut-offs and similar appliances have done away with all danger in using telephones during thunderstorms, but, when electrical disturbances are in progress, prudent souls may be pardoned for saying of the telephone, as Rip Van Winkle said of the whiskey "we're better out of it."

A CURIOUS DISCOVERY.

A Young Woman's Body [illegible] and the Discovery Just Made.

Boys who were playing in the cemetery at New Hamburgh, a village on the New York Central road, between Fishkill and Poughkeepsie, found a coffin, which was badly decayed and on which was a rusty plate, bearing the name of Cecilia A. Lawton, who died February 2, 1882. The coffin was lying within fifteen feet of the grave of the girl and had evidently been there a long time as its condition and the grave overgrown with underbrush showed, and it is remarkable that it had never been discovered before.

A Big Real Estate Deal

Henry M. Denton, formerly of Denton, now in the real estate business in New York city, has completed a large trade, whereby he purchases from the E. H. M. Just estate the eight story Washington apartment house, at the corner of Seventh avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-second street, and the five story flat, 25x80 feet, at the northeast corner of One Hundred and Twenty-first street and Seventh avenue, for $383,000. Mr. Denton is to transfer in part payment the three five story flats, two on the south side of One Hundred and Thirty-ninth street, between Willis and Alexander avenues, and one on Alexander avenue, between One Hundred and Thirty-eighth and One Hundred and Thirty-ninth streets.

UP THE UPLAND.

A Gay Party on the Hard Times—Piano and Organ Timber—Paris Green for Woodchucks—Good Trout Fishing—A New York Lawyer on Suspended Sentence in Fishing Cases.

Correspondence of the Argus.

—A party of Salvationists, who are now making a tour of these Midland counties, has discovered the cause of these hard times. One of their number in the course of his remarks said that the Almighty sent these times upon the American people in order to humble them and wean them from the pleasures of this earth. Well, I, for one, was glad to hear it, as it relieves the politicians of both parties of a fearful responsibility.

—J. T. Watson, who owns the new steam saw mill at Roscoe, has shipped, the past week, eighteen car loads of maple lumber to T. T. Williams, of New York city, with more to follow. This lumber will be all manufactured into piano and organs, and when cut from the stump it is done with this especial object in view. Mr. Watson is an excellent sawyer and has one of the finest mills on the line of the O. and W.

—I want to say right here that if any of your farmer readers are pestered with woodchucks I would suggest that they mix salt and Paris green together, in about the proportion of three parts salt to one of Paris green, and put a small teaspoonful of the mixture on a stone and place it in the hole out of reach of other animals. Woodchucks and all other grass eating animals are fond of salt and the "chucks" will eat the mixture greedily whenever they can get it. The Paris green will do the rest.

—Paul Devereaux, of Deposit, recently caught below the old Cochran & Appley mill dam, opposite the Rockland station, a trout that weighed three pounds and two ounces. The work that has been done in stocking our streams now begins to tell, as more and larger fish can now be taken than could possibly have been taken ten or fifteen years ago, and the people who now come here to fish are ten times as many as came at that time and the most of them go away with good messes. Yet with all these facts there are people here who wish there were no trout in Sullivan county, and say that every fish hatchery in the State ought to be blown to splinters. All, or nearly all the increase in wealth in Sullivan county, along the line of the O. and W., can be traced directly to the summer boarder and were it not for the excellent trout fishing that our streams afford boarders would be nothing like as numerous as they now are.

—About the statement in this column that a man named [illegible] had been fined ten dollars for catching two trout shorter than the legal length and that the Justice suspended sentence, a well known New York city lawyer has sent me the following that explains itself:

As I understand it the penalty for catching trout out of season, or of smaller size than the law permits, is fixed at twenty dollars for each fish taken in violation of the law. This penalty can be sued for, and after a suit a justice has no more right to "suspend sentence" than he would have to say it is one party need not [illegible] for twenty dollars each [illegible]. He found the [illegible] had been [illegible], but he couldn't enter judgment for the amount. The Justice could be impeached for such an act.

GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIAL.

Novel and Very Successful Entertainment of the Ladies' Auxiliary at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

The rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association were full to overflowing, last evening, and those present enjoyed a pleasing entertainment, the programme of which was as follows:

Piano duet by Mrs. Dusenberry and Miss Davenport; recitation, Mr. L. V. Stansbrough; pretty vocal duet, Misses Grace and Alice Stephens, and an interesting reading by Miss Margaret B. Parker, which was followed by a tambourine drill by twelve young women: Lulu Morris, Louise Smith, Fannie Johnson, Mabel Forsythe, Marie Scott, Lizzie Johnson, Grace Davenport, Lottie Wells, Lena Randall, Olive Struble, Mabel Horton, Flora Schellenberg. The drill was beautifully executed and was very pleasing.

The novel part of the evening's entertainment was then introduced: Articles made to represent some geographical locality were arranged about the parlors and with slips of paper and pencils, the answers were written out. No one succeeded in making a correct and complete list of all the articles which are here given. Of the thirty-eight Mr. W. W. Clark had thirty-four and Mr. Frank Macmunn, thirty-three. The countries and localities represented were:

Cayenne, Red Sea, Black Sea, Yellow Sea, White Sea, Manhattan, Lowell, Cape Farewell, Interlaken, Montrose, Hamburg, Horseheads, Russia, China, Cologne, Hayti, Java, Little Rock, Berne, Fife, Cork, Lyons, Moscow, Cambridge, Astrakhan, Lima, Saxony, Boston, Cape Horn, Buffalo, Cuba, Beaufort, Jungernaut, Pekin, West Indies, Circleville, Brussels, Nevada.

The entertainment was a decided success in every way and the Ladies' Auxiliary, which had it in charge, is to be congratulated.

24TH COMPANY NOTES.

The Drill Season Ended—Inspection Postponed on Account of the Cantata.

—The regular drill season of the 24th Separate Company closed with last night's drill. It is expected, however, that the company will be given several out-door drills in extended order before going to camp.

—Captain McIntyre received orders, Monday, from General McGrath, ordering the annual inspection for Thursday evening of this week, but as all the arrangements for the production of the cantata, "Moses in Egypt," had been made, the Captain telegraphed to General McGrath asking for a change of date. The reply was: "Order countermanded, inspection postponed."

Ladies Who Know.

What a great number there are, how uncomfortable it makes them; it is almost impossible for those afflicted to enjoy life. In my private practice I have always found Sulphur Bitters to be the best remedy. All who are thus troubled should use it. Mme De Cornet, Boston.

A WOMAN'S POWER.

IT IS THE GREATEST ON EARTH.

It Establishes Throne and Destroys Nations.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

The influence of Woman upon the civilization of the world could never be measured.

The flash of her eye, the touch of her hand, and we know the marvelous power of woman, glorious in the possession of perfect physical health. Lydia E. Pinkham, by her wonderful discovery of the Vegetable Compound has done much to place this great health power in the hands of women. She has lifted them out of the misery brought by derangement of the womb, and all the evils that follow diseased uterus.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores natural cheerfulness, destroys despondency, cures leucorrhoea, backache, strengthens the muscles, restores the womb to its normal condition, regulates menstruation, removes inflammation, ulceration, and tumors of the womb, etc.

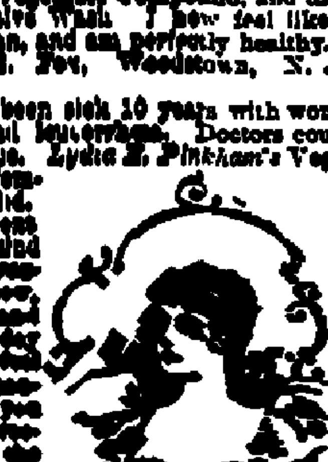

Here are two women who speak from experience, and for the benefit of others.

Miss Helen Smith, [illegible] Place, Chicago, Ill., says:—

"I was troubled with irregularity and leucorrhoea. I followed Mrs. Pinkham's advice, took her Vegetable Compound, and used her Sanative Wash. I now feel like a new woman, and am perfectly healthy."

Mrs. [illegible] Fox, Woodstown, N. J., writes:—

"I had been sick 10 years with womb trouble and leucorrhoea. Doctors could not help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did.

[illegible] I recommend the Compound to every woman who has any 'weakness.'"
